

I oppose changes that lead to further media consolidation. We MUST protect the rights of EVERY citizen to be informed with a wide variety of views, including those possible on smaller independent stations that are free from pressure from Private Global Interests. I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.